

Fuehrer's Lost Treasures

My dear friends!

Given the gravity of the situation, I have no other option, but to turn to you for help.

You are the only ones I can trust with this extremely urgent task.

The situation is as follows:

A group of researchers in Berlin found an old letter addressed to Adolf Hitler which reveals that in year 1944 the Führer`s Nazis, while fleeing from Soviet troops, left well-hidden coordinates in their secret headquarters in Sigulda revealing the location of Hitler's most secret treasure trove, where the most incredible treasures and knowledge, that by the Führer orders awaits his new ruler, who will arrive there to revive the millennial Reich.

These coordinates can only be discovered by solving the Nazi hidden tasks in their secret headquarters described in the Nazi Treasure Book, permeated with propaganda and exaggerated glorification of Adolf Hitler.

For people with impressionable minds, I would recommend choosing another reading material, but you are the best in your field, so I send you to this, probably difficult and possibly dangerous task.

I don't know what awaits you there, I only know that you will find yourself in a place where no one has set their foot for almost a hundred years.

Thanks to our best agent, we have this Führer`s letter, the contents of which I have attached below to the following information, which may help you in your mission. I am sure that you will be up to the task, and that you will obtain these important coordinates to bring these riches and hidden knowledge into the right hands.

May success be with you!

My dear Führer!

By your orders we have hidden the coordinates that You have provided, and have included the clues in the great Book of Treasures.

Your inheritance is safe, only the brightest of the Aryan minds will be able to solve the clues we have left behind.

As you have previously requested, we are sending you further information and pictures so you can see for yourself what we have done.

Also, as you have asked, this clue hiding place has been set up as a death trap.

For all those who, without the greatness in question, dare to crave your treasures will have to pay the ultimate price.

We have placed a motion detector in our headquarters that without the right code entry, will trigger the lethal gas within 100 minutes.

Only Your true inheritor will be able to solve our clues and get the right coordinates, and the rest of them will be piling in piles.

Once the coordinates have been successfully obtained, the new ruler must get out alive through our secret passage, which can be unlocked by using all 10 digits from the correct coordinate.

Whoever can do all this in less than an hour - before the deadly gas injection, will definitely be the most powerful man of the future.

At your command, I remain locked in here, to welcome your new "Golden Army" back to Eastern Europe.

*See you soon,
my dear Führer!*
